1	The offender has violated the supervision condition which states ' The defendant shall pay a fine in the amount of $25,000.
---	---

The offender 's term of supervision is scheduled to expire on April 4, 2007. As of this date, February 28, 2007, he has an outstanding fine balance of $22,205.82.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Since commencing his term of supervision on April 5, 2004, the Probation Office has monitored the offender's conduct and financial condition throughout his term of supervision. Mr. Kapral has contributed monthly payments towards his fine obligation to the best of his ability.

Mr. Kapral was diagnosed with a detached retina which has required him to undergo numerous surgeries to repair same. To date, Mr. Kapral has still not fully recovered from his surgeries. His poor vision qualifies him as legally blind. He is currently unable to work and is subsisting on monthly Social Security Disability benefits.

The Probation Office respectfully requests that Mr. Kapral's term of Supervised Release be allowed to expire on April 4, 2007, as scheduled. Upon expiration of the supervision term, collection of the remaining fine balance will be pursued by the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office. Note that the offender will remain under supervision under Docket No. 94-CR-00488-01, and that we will continue to collect payments towards the $25,000 fine that was imposed on Docket No. 94-CR-299-01

Respectfully submitted,

By: Ryan A. Klein
U.S. Probation Officer
